RESTRICTION/ELECTION REQUIREMENT

Restrictions/Elections (371)

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-15, 24-41, drawn to a method of making a film.

Group II, claim(s) 16-23, 42, drawn to an apparatus for making film.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: According to MPEP, PCT Rule 13.2, Unity of Invention exists only when there is a technical relationship among the claimed inventions. The expression "Special Technical Feature" is defined in PCT Rule 13.2 as meaning those technical features that define a contribution which each of the inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art. The special technical feature in the instant application defined by claims appears to be the formation of PBT films via air-cooled inflation. Lack of unity exists because the common element to the inventions has been anticipated by the prior art as disclosed by EP 0641638. Since the common feature to the inventions has been shown not to be unique over the prior art, and because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by the different classifications, restriction for examination purposes as indicated as proper.

Art Unit: 1773

2. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention.

(1) the temperate for returning into the first shape:

(a) as recited in claims 27-28;

(b) as recited in claims 29-30.

These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The common feature in these claims is the ability of a PBT object to return to an initial shape, which is known in the art (JP 02-269735) and therefore does not meet the requirement of a "special technical feature" as required for unity of invention.

3. Due to the number of inventions and/or species, this restriction/election requirement has been made in written form.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Conclusion

1. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
